Greetings from the President General

Dear Dames and Protectors of the Guild,

Your officers have been working very hard to get the word out about the reorganizational efforts for our group. We have made the annual $100 donation to St. Margaret’s Chapel in Scotland and our annual donation for the National Guild of St. Margaret Award at the University of Chicago. On page 5 you can read about the first recipient of the award.

Each edition of St. Margaret’s Journal I am trying to put an article from the “old” St. Margaret group. The last edition and this I have put in pedigrees of a couple of our Presidents. These pedigrees are not necessarily still correct (as with Nixon through Hugh Harry). The intent is only to mesh the old with the new. If you have a question as to whether a pedigree has been disproven, please contact the Registrar General, John Harman.

The Nominating Committee is currently working on a slate of officers for the 2013-2015 administration. Many of the reorganizational officers have elected to remain on the board for consistency. The slate will be listed in the Spring issue of St. Margaret’s Journal.

We do have some committee chairmanships that need to be filled. If you are interested in serving as Bylaws, Membership, Newsletter Proof Reader or as the Webmaster (once we have a website) please let me know. We are always looking for qualified people to serve The National Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland.

We are in the process of making plans for our Annual Gathering in April at The Army and Navy Club. Edward and Marlene Wilkinson have graciously offered to sponsor us at this prestigious private club. The date is set for Tuesday, April 9, 2013. It will be a luncheon followed by a business meeting. The board voted not to have a guest speaker so we can have some Meet-and-Greet time after the business meeting. The Call and reservation form will be in the Spring issue of this publication. We hope many of you will be able to attend.

The Chancellor General, Patricia Kryder, submitted the necessary form in February so we can become a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt charitable entity. Currently, the IRS is working on applications they received in October. Hopefully, we will have this status by April.

If you have a friend, neighbor or family member interested in St. Margaret, please sponsor them for membership. A form is located on page 7. Please remember to sign the form and a Letter of Recommendation should be attached to the form from the Sponsor AND the Endorser.

The last 9 months have been very exciting. We have had much interest in the group. Your officers appreciate your support of our efforts. If you ever have a question, please feel free to contact any one of the officers.

St. Margaret’s Chapel…

St Margaret's Chapel at Edinburgh Castle

E-mail address: stmargaretschapel@gmail.com
Website link: http://stmargaretschapel.com/

St. Margaret's Chapel is the oldest building in Edinburgh, and one of the loveliest examples of Norman architecture in Britain. It is very small and simple in design. Until recently, it was thought to have been the very chapel where Queen Margaret worshipped, but it is now believed to have been built by her son, King David, at the beginning of the 12th century.

When the Earl of Moray captured the castle in 1314, the chapel was the only building that was not destroyed, and Robert the Bruce is said to have ordered, on his deathbed, that it be repaired. The chapel has had many uses over the years, and was even a gunpowder store in the early 19th century. In 1853, it was restored by Sir Daniel Wilson, who filled in the five small windows with stained glass, which were replaced in the early 1920s by Dr Douglas Strachan's telling representations of St Andrew, St Ninian, St Columba, St Margaret and also Sir William Wallace. Sir David Russell was largely responsible for its further restoration in the early 1930s.

The Altar Cloth in St Margaret's Chapel

In 1993, to commemorate the 900th anniversary of the death of St Margaret, Historic Scotland renovated the chapel and St Margaret's Chapel Guild refurbished it. Mrs. Hannah Paterson MBE, designed and worked a lovely altar cloth depicting in texture, color and symbol, the life and work of St Margaret. Piers Kettlewell, cabinet maker, made ten bench seats, an alms chest, a flower stand, and a display case for the St Margaret's Gospel book facsimile. Each oak bench seat has lime wood roundels at either end, one roundel on each seat bearing a carved emblem associated with St Margaret.

On St Margaret's Day, 16th November 1993, the enriched chapel was dedicated by the President of St Margaret's Chapel Guild, the Reverend Charles Robertson, Minister of Canongate, and the Right Reverend Mario Conti, Bishop of Aberdeen, in the presence of Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, Patron of St Margaret's Chapel Guild. A wrought-iron memorial candlestick, designed and made by Philip Johnson, was added to the chapel in 2000.

Members of St Margaret's Chapel Guild* ensure that there are always fresh flowers in the chapel, to greet those who come to visit and to pray there, or to take part in services of Holy Baptism and Holy Matrimony.

Some of the roundels in the Chapel

*The National Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland became a member of St. Margaret’s Chapel Fellowship on 11 Jun 1990 (see certificate below). We donate $100 annually to keep fresh flowers on the altar.

From the Fellowship Secretary…

Shari,

Would you please pass on our thanks to the members of the Guild for their donation to our Guild. Many thanks for the copy of your Newsletter. It made for interesting reading, and it was good to put a face to a name and also to learn a little more about you.

The St. Margaret's chapel was closed for a month or so in March for redecoration. They have removed the many layers of paint to expose the original stonework. I haven't seen the result, but am assured that it looks very good.

Preparations for our 70th birthday celebrations are well in hand, and I have been scouring the shops for a suitable hat to wear. Will let you know how it went.

Many thanks again,

Hazel Dunn

The National Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland’s Award, 2012 Recipient is…

JAKE CHARLES RANSOHOFF

Jake grew up in Tampa, FL. He is the son of Dr. Lori (Cohen) Ransohoff and the late Dr. Joseph Ransohoff.

He has attended the University of Chicago since 2008 – where he has a double-major; Medieval Studies and History.

His interest in Medieval and Byzantine history dates back to early childhood. While attending high school at Tampa Preparatory School, he began archaeological fieldwork in Bulgaria. Since then, he has served on further excavations in Bulgaria, Turkey and the Republic of Macedonia.

Currently Jake is co-director of the Pyrgos archaeological project, which seeks to document and excavate the Byzantine fortress of Pyrgos, located outside the modern village of Mokrievo, Macedonia. His work has been published in the journal Palaeobulgarica and he has presented papers at the University of Chicago, the University of Leeds and Oxford.

Following graduation from Chicago June 2012, he will be spending the 2012-2013 academic year in the Republic of Macedonia on a Fulbright research scholarship.

Jake dedicated his thesis to his mother with the following words:

For my mother, who says I should be a dentist instead.

The National Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland’s Award…

Your President General contacted fourteen organizations regarding a partnership with them. She heard back from six of the fourteen. The Board reviewed all six suggestions and voted the following as the suggested project for The National Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland.

1. A donation (of at least $150) to The University of Chicago Program in Medieval Studies:
   a. The award recipient will be the student who has the finest BA thesis in Medieval Studies or on a medieval subject.
   b. The student, selected by the school, would receive the donation and a certificate.
   c. The check and certificate will be awarded to the student at the school’s Honors Assembly in late May.

2. The membership would:
   a. Vote at the Annual Gathering to continue the relationship
   b. Vote at the Annual Gathering for the amount of donation
   c. Authorize the Treasurer General to send the donation after our April meeting to the University of Chicago’s designated contact

3. The National Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland will:
   a. Receive the name of the recipient
   b. Receive a photo of the recipient
   c. Receive a copy of the recipient’s thesis that we could either print in our newsletter or put a copy on the website (provided the material remains copyrighted. Some students might want to continue with their topics. If published versions eventually appear, the school would ask the students to see that we get a copy).
DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that many of our US Presidents are connected to St. Margaret? Below, reprinted from the March 1979 St. Margaret’s Journal, (Volume 4, Number 1) is a lineal line for George Washington. The line was compiled by Geraldine Wheeler.
